Updates to this notice: We will make changes to this notice from time to time, particularly when we change how we use your information, and change our technology and products.

You can always find an up-to-date version of this notice on our website www.waterfordcu.ie or you can ask us for a copy.

Our Use and Sharing of your Information

We will collect and use relevant information about you, your transactions, your use of our products and services, and your relationships with us. We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes:

Fulfilling a Contract

This basis is appropriate where the processing is necessary for us to manage your accounts and credit union services to you.

Administrative Purposes: We will use the information provided by you, either contained in this form or any other form or application for the purpose of assessing this application, processing applications you make and to maintain and administer any accounts you have with the credit union.

Third Parties: We may appoint external third parties to undertake operations functions on our behalf. We will ensure that any information passed to third parties conduction operational functions on our behalf will do so with respect for the security of your data and will be protected in line with data protection law.

Irish League of Credit Unions (ILCU) Affiliation: The ILCU provides professional and business support services such as marketing and public affairs representation, monitoring financial, guidance, compliance, risk, learning and development, and insurance services to affiliated credit unions. As Waterford Credit Union is affiliated to the ILCU, the credit union must also operate in line with the ILCU Standard Rules (which members of the credit union are bound to the credit union by) and the League Rules (which the credit union is bound to the ILCU by). We may disclose information in your application or in respect of any account or transaction of yours from the date of your original membership to authorised officers or employees of the ILCU for the purpose of the ILCU providing these services to us.

The Privacy Notice of ILCU can be found at www.creditunion.ie

Savings Protection Scheme (SPS): We may disclose information in any application from you or in respect of any account transaction of yours from the date of your original membership to authorised officers or employees of the ILCU for the purpose of the ILCU providing these services and fulfilling requirements under our affiliation to the ILCU and the SPS.

CUSOP: For the processing of electronic payments services on your account (such as credit transfers, standing orders and direct debits) the Credit Union is a participant of CUSOP (Payments) DAC ('CUSOP'). CUSOP is a credit union owned, independent, not for profit company that provides an electronic payments service platform for the credit union movement in Ireland. CUSOP is an outsourced model engaging third party companies, such as a Partner Bank, to assist with the processing of payment data.

TPML: If we issue you with a debit card, Transact Payments Malta Limited (TPML), which is an authorised e-money institution will also be a controller of your personal data. In order for you to understand what they do with your personal data, and how to exercise your rights in respect of their processing of your personal data, you should review their privacy policy which is available at <https://currentaccount.ie/files/tpl-privacy-policy.pdf>

Insurance: As part of our affiliation with the ILCU, we purchase insurance from ECCU Assurance DAC (ECCU), a life insurance company, wholly owned by the ILCU. To administer these insurances, we may pass your information to ECCU and it may be necessary to process 'special category' personal data about you. This includes information about your health which will be shared with ECCU for the purposes of our life assurance policy to allow ECCU to deal with insurance underwriting, administration and claims on our behalf. Further information can be found in our lending privacy notice.

Electronic Payments (not through CUSOP): If you use your debit/credit card to make payments into your credit union account, we are required to share your personal data with Realex Payments and Wellington IT.

Member Service: To help us improve our service to you, we may use information about your account to help us improve our services to you.

Legal Duty

This basis is appropriate when we are processing personal data to comply with an Irish or EU Law.

Tax Liability: We may share information and documentation with domestic and foreign tax authorities to establish your liability to tax in any jurisdiction. Where a member is tax resident in another jurisdiction the credit union has certain reporting obligations to Revenue under the Common Reporting Standard. Revenue will then exchange this information with the jurisdiction of tax residence of the member. We shall not be responsible to you or any third party for any loss incurred as a result of us taking such actions. Under the 'Return of Payments Regulations 2008' credit unions are obliged to report details to the Revenue in respect of dividend or interest payments to members, which include PPSN where held.

Regulatory & Statutory Requirements: To meet our duties to the Regulator, the Central Bank of Ireland, we may allow authorised people to see our records (which may include information about you) for reporting, compliance and auditing purposes. For the same reason, we will also hold the information about you when you are no longer a member. We may also share information with certain statutory bodies such as the Department of Finance, the Department of Social Protection and the Financial Services & Pensions Ombudsman Bureau of Ireland if required by law.

Compliance with Anti-Money Laundering & Combating Terrorist Financing Obligations: The information provided by you will be used for compliance with our customer due diligence and screening obligations under anti-money laundering and combating terrorist financing obligations under The Money Laundering provisions of the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010, as amended by Part 2 of the Criminal Justice Act 2013.

Audit: To meet our legislative and regulatory duties to maintain audited financial accounts, we appoint an external auditor. We will allow the external auditor to see our records (which may include information about you) for these purposes.

Incapacity to Act on your account: The Credit Union Act 1997 (as amended) provides, in the circumstances where you become unable to transact on your account, due to a mental incapability and no person has been legally appointed to administer your account, that the Board may allow payment to another who it deems proper to receive it, where it is just and expedient to do so, in order that the money be applied in your best interests. In order to facilitate this, medical evidence of your incapacity will be required which will include data about your mental health. This information will be treated in the strictest confidentiality.

Legitimate Interest

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information. But even then, it must not unfairly go against what is right and best for you. If we rely on our legitimate interest, we will tell you what that is.

CCTV: We have CCTV footage installed on the premises with clearly marked signage. The purpose of this is for security. Our legitimate interest – with regard to the nature of our business, it is necessary to secure the premises, property herein and any staff/volunteers/members or visitors to the credit union.

Voice Recording: We record phone conversations both incoming and outgoing for the purpose of verifying information and quality of service. Our legitimate interest – to ensure a good quality of service, to ensure that correct instructions were given or taken due to the nature of our business and to quickly and accurately resolve any disputes.

Your Consent

We will only carry out processing which is based on your consent and will cease processing once you withdraw such consent.

Marketing and Market Research: To help improve, measure the quality of our products & services we undertake marketing research.

Your Rights in connection with your personal data

To enquire whether we hold any of your personal data and obtain information about how your data is processed.

Request access to any personal data held by Waterford Credit Union about you.

Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).

Have inaccurate or incomplete personal data we hold about you rectified so as to ensure all information we hold is correct.

Take your information to a different organisation (data portability). You can request that Waterford Credit Union provide you with a copy of any relevant personal data in a reusable format and/or request that we transfer your relevant personal data to another controller where it is technically feasible to do (relevant personal data is personal data that you have provided to us or which is generated by your use of our service, which is processed by automated means and where the basis that we process it is on your consent or on a contract that you have entered into with us).

Object and restrict the processing of your data, where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. You can also ask us to restrict or suspend processing personal data about you, in certain circumstances.

Object to automated decision making processes.
